The authors use of humour helps keep things in perspective: It's full of useful information and goes much deeper into the cameras workings than the Nikon manual. I would say it's suitable for novice and experienced photographers alike, Shame because having just bought the a Nikon D3500 this would have been a great help to get to understand all the feature to use the camera correctly: Nikon D3500 For Dummies This is a very informative book with lots of information, I like to use a book as I can take my time and go back to sections that I have not quite mastered, Nikon D3500 For Dummies

Still working my way through this but it's been a fantastic help: It takes more than a good eye and an amazing camera to get shots like the pros: With the help of Nikon D3500 For Dummies you'll find all the expert advice and know-how you need to unlock your camera's capabilities to their fullest potential, It takes more than a good eye and an amazing camera to get shots like the pros, With the help of Nikon D3500 For Dummies you'll find all the expert advice and know-how you need to unlock your camera's capabilities to their fullest potential. Really good book. The next 32 page were all the same. These pages had text missing. So returned this book. Last time I had a camera it took film. This book is helping me sort through the world of dslr. Nikon D3500 For Dummies.
